

APPLICATION FOR GRADUATE STUDY IN SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY

Department of Communicative Sciences and Deaf Studies
California State University, Fresno
Fresno, CA. 93740-8022

This application is only for students applying to the Graduate Program. If you have not completed your Bachelor’s degree in Communicative Disorders (or similar program) then you must complete the prerequisite undergraduate courses and submit the “Prerequisite Tracking Form”. For more information regarding the program or needed prerequisites, please see Frequently Asked Questions and information for students with a degree outside of SLP, located on our departmental website at the following link: <https://www.fresnostate.edu/chhs/csds/grad-requirements/index.html>

Name _____ Date _____

CSUF Student ID # _____ Phone _____

Fresno State Email Address _____

(Note: Admission results will be emailed to your Fresno State email address.)

Educational Background

School Awarding Bachelor’s Degree _____

Major _____

Year Degree Awarded (Expected or Earned) _____

If your undergraduate degree was not in Communicative Disorders/Speech-Language Pathology, indicate the University where you took the undergraduate courses for this major.

A course in Physics or Chemistry is now required by ASHA. The ASHA standard reads "Applicants must have knowledge in physical sciences, which must be acquired through coursework in physics or chemistry." The intent is clearly related to gaining knowledge in the physical sciences. Please list the course # and title that is being used to fulfill this requirement: _____

Please list the Universities/colleges that will be submitting official transcripts to the University:

Please list the names and organizational affiliations of the three (3) people you have asked for Letters of Recommendation:

Name: _____ Affiliation: _____

Name: _____ Affiliation: _____

Name: _____ Affiliation: _____