

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Virginia Rondero Hernandez is a Professor and Chair of the Department of Social Work Education and also serves as the Director of the Central California Social Welfare Evaluation, Research and Training Center at Fresno State. Prior to coming to Fresno State in fall 2002, Dr. Rondero Hernandez taught at Texas State University, San Marcos and the Worden School of Social Service at Our Lady of the Lake University in San Antonio, Texas. She has practiced as a licensed social worker in clinic, hospital, hospice, school, and non-profit settings. Her research interests include substance use disorders, adult and juvenile justice, child health disparities, Latino mental health, shame resilience and integrated health care services.