

Why Cultural Competency is Important... and what you will explore

How individuals and families of diverse backgrounds are both alike and different.

How to appreciate and value social identity and distinctiveness in self and in others.

Knowledge skills in making initial contact, engaging with and interacting with individuals from different cultures.

Cross Cultural Competency Certificate Program Department of Social Work Education

Professional Human Services Building Room 128

5310 N. Campus Drive, MS PH102

Fresno, CA 93740-8019

FRESNO STATE

Social Work Education

Cross Cultural Competency Certificate

Department of Social Work Education
College of Health & Human Services
5310 N. Campus Drive PHS 102
Fresno, CA 93740-8019
559-278-3992

What is Cultural Competency?

Competency is based on self-awareness of personal culture, values, beliefs and behaviors; the knowledge of and respect for other cultures; and skills in interacting with and interacting to individuals from other cultures within empowerment perspective. It also requires understanding of diversity and oppression based on ethnicity race, gender, sexual orientations, socioeconomic class, religion, disability and an ability for effective practice with diverse populations.

Curriculum

- ◆ Multi-system skills & competencies
- ◆ Knowledge of others history worldwide
- ◆ Self-awareness and of town culture and social identity; knowledge of diversity and oppression

Required Coursework:

Social Work Education Courses

SWRK 136 Cultural Diversity & Oppression
3 Units

SWRK 137 Cross Cultural Human Services
3 Units

Elective Courses:

Take two 3-unit courses from different categories of the courses listed below:

6 Units

12 Units

Elective Courses

Language and Culture:

ANTH 118, 123, 124; CLAS 120; CSDS 139;
COMM 120, 164; GERON 111, 161; PHIL 135,
138; HUM 130; LING 120, 130, 147; SPAN 125

Health/Mental Health:

ANTH 117; PH 100; PSYCH 169; RA 125;

Ethnicity:

AFRS 100, 104W, 101, 103, 135, 142, 144,
148; ANTH 115, 116W; ASAM 110, 138, 140;
CLAS 128, 152; CRIM 174; SOC 111

Women:

AFRS 137; CLAS 162; PH 127, 130; HIST 101;
WGSS 11, 120/120S, 135; SOC 132

Certificate Requirements:

A certificate of special study is awarded once 12 units of electives that consist of two core courses and two interdisciplinary courses are completed. The certificate is designed to prepare students for professional practice in culturally diverse settings in the fields of business, education, health care, and human service. All coursework must be taken for a letter grade and completed with a grade of "C" or better in each of the six required units and six units of electives.

Certificate Procedure Overview:

1. Complete the appropriate application located on the Social Work Education Department office website:
www.fresnostate.edu/socialwork
2. Submit a completed application and a copy of your transcripts upon completing all of the required courses to the Department office.
3. Applicants must have completed all coursework in order to submit application for consideration.